Sr. Carol Coston, OP Fellowship Application

networkadvocates.org/yall

NETWORK Advocates for Catholic Social Justice is accepting applications for admission to the 2026 cohort of the Sr. Carol Coston, OP Fellowship. This fellowship awards the next generation of justice-seekers with a position in a learning community of young advocates during their time in college. It provides a paid opportunity to participate in NETWORK'S political ministry at the federal level to achieve an inclusive, multiracial, and multi-faith democracy.

To apply, submit this form, a 250-word essay, a resume, and the name of a university or college staff member who will support you, to the email address at the bottom of this page. Or, apply online at networkadvocates.org/yall.
